Meal Voucher Criteria
A student requesting a meal voucher must:

- Be registered and/or enrolled; exceptions may be reviewed by ECR TEAM
- Indicate the lack of a regular source of sufficient nourishment
- Not have an alternative source of meal options (i.e. dining hall meal plan). Students living on the Hill with a meal plan are not eligible for the Meal Voucher Program.

Students are limited to a maximum of 20 meal vouchers per quarter with a maximum of 3 quarters of support; if need exceeds this, an assessment of student’s financial situation must be completed by ECRT.

International, Undocumented/AB540 students and Students with Dependents are limited to a maximum of 30 vouchers per quarter each quarter they are enrolled at UCLA through degree completion.

If a student begins a new degree at UCLA, the eligibility will reset.

UCLA Dining Meal Vouchers may only be redeemed at UCLA Dining facilities (with the exception of Rieber Feast and Bruin Plate) located on the Hill (undergraduate residential community).

- Please visit http://menu.dining.ucla.edu/hours/ for most up-to-date hours of operation.

ASUCLA Meal Vouchers may be redeemed at any ASUCLA facility (on-campus dining facilities such as Ackerman, Northern Lights, Luvalle, etc.) with the expectation of locations listed on voucher as non-applicable.
